Petites Soeurs de l'Assomption

1. RESPOND TO A MINING eSURVEY BY RELIGIOUS: The impacts of mining have become compelling issues for many of our congregations. The members of the Integrity of Creation Working Group (ICWG) of the JPIC Commission in Rome have developed a survey on the mining industry which is available in English, Spanish, French and Portuguese. The survey is being sent to congregations and to other organizations associated with them; however, it will not be sent to mining companies. The survey will ONLY be available on line from January 15 to February 28, 2013. NOTE: The link for the survey WILL be <http://education.plus-assistance.eu> The user name to get to the eSurveys will be: ICWG (all caps) its password will be: plusICWG2013 (case-sensitive) The purpose of the survey is to create an international network of support that strengthens the relationships between advocates and persons at the grassroots working on mining issues. Please help us by forwarding and alerting the important persons needed to complete this survey. For questions regarding the survey, please contact icwgmining@gmail.com. Information concerning the survey will be posted at <http://jpicformation.wikispaces.com...>

2. Franciscans and immigration reform in USA: The OFM-JPIC Inter-Provincial Commission sent a letter to President Obama asking him to advance comprehensive immigration reform. They outlined several reasons why this was important. For a copy of the letter in English, go to, <http://www.franciscansforjustice.or...>;
